

AUTOMATIC DOOR SUPPLIERS ASSOCIATION

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The Executive Council of the Automatic Door Suppliers Association has agreed that where it could be to the mutual benefit of the membership as a whole, firms or corporate bodies being suppliers of goods and/or services to the automatic door industry (not otherwise eligible to become Ordinary members) may be invited to become Associate members of ADSA.

Associate members shall be invited to attend the four National General Meetings of the Association held each year, as well as any extraordinary general meetings or social events. They will also have all their details displayed on the ADSA website.

Associate members shall have the opportunity to discuss with Ordinary members matters of mutual interest and, by so doing, to become aware of the requirements of suppliers of automatic door systems.

In return, Associate members shall be given the opportunity to outline their own problems and to illustrate at first hand their methods, materials or products.

Associate members shall contribute to the funds of the Association by means of a one-off administration fee, plus an annual subscription, the amount of which shall be subject to annual review by the Executive Council.

Associate membership shall be renewable annually, at the invitation of the Executive Council.

Reproduced overleaf, is an extract from the Association's Objects and Rules relating to Associate Membership. Attention is particularly drawn to Rule 3(b)(ii) thereof.
